

Penfold Projects is a wholly Australian owned company providing complete construction and project management of high quality hard and soft landscapes.

The success of the Safety Management System shall be assured by management and their commitment to the implementation and maintenance of this system in accordance with AS/NZS ISO4081:2001 – Safety Management Systems.

The Safety Goals of Penfold Projects are to achieve:

- ◆ Professional services provided in a safety conscious manner to maintain a safety aware place of work.
- ◆ Control work activities that have the potential of impacting on employees, subcontractors, clients and the public.
- ◆ Continued compliance of WHS Management System in accordance with AS/NZS ISO4081:2001 – Safety Management Systems.
- ◆ .

Penfold Projects is Committed to:

- ◆ The Company is committed to achieving best practice in workplace Occupational Health & Safety through the implementation and compliance to its Accredited Safety Management System.
- ◆ Involvement of all staff and subcontractors to reduce or eliminate risks and hazards in the workplace.
- ◆ Commit financial, physical and human resources to achieve a safe place of work and allocate responsibility and accountability to all levels of the organisation.
- ◆ Regularly review and amend the Company's Policy and Management system to ensure compliance with the standards and interested parties.
- ◆ Regular review the Company's Safety Objectives and Targets and ensure these align with the current standards and interested parties.

Each member of the company has the responsibility to ensure that the intentions of this policy statement are understood, applied and maintained within their own area of activity

Todd Penfold
Managing Director
Penfold Projects

10th October 2017

WWW.JAS-ANZ.ORG/REGISTER